Sir,

With reference to your Official Memorandum No 1127 dated 24th November 1902, forwarding for report a petition from Ranjadasappa and others of Amoopure Village, Kadur Taluk, Complaining of irregularities in the Sri. Ranganatha Swamy Temple at Hosahalli, in the Kadur Taluk, I have the honor to state that the temple in question is a muzrai Institution enjoying a cash grant of Rs 4-6-0 per annum. The management of the Temple is, at present, vested in one Mallanna Setty who is a Lingayeth by caste. The petitioners who are devotees of the Temple complain that Mallanna Setty does not take an interest in the performance of the Rathotsava and other services, and suggest his removal from the management.

2 The Amildar, after inspecting the Temple, the 17th ultimo reports that, Vahivatdar Mallanna Setty pretending to be sick at first evaded evaded appearance and that when he appeared did not reply satisfactorily to the allegations contained in the petition under report. He further reports that Mallamasetty has kept no proper account of jewels, &c offered by the devotees to the temple and suggests that the Vahivati of the temple should be taken away from Mallamasetty and entrusted to the Shanbhog Sivaramiah who should be directed to manage its affairs with the assistance of the following persons as Dharmadarsees

1 Gowrabasave Gowda, Patel of Hosahalli,
2 Dase Gowda, Patel of Annorgere,
3 Iman Gowda, Patel of Ganadagaranii

3 In these circumstances, I concur with the Amildar and recommend the removal of Mallamasetty from the Vahivat and the appointment of Sivaramiah as the Vahivatdar. The appointment of the Dharmadarsees proposed by the Amildar may also be sanctioned. Mallamasetty being a Lingayeth by caste, it is idle to expect him to take any interest in a Vishnu Institution. On receipt of sanction to his removal, the Amildar will be directed to have an inventory made of the jewels, &c, belonging to the temple and to cause an account being maintained.

offerings made by devotees in future, and for the temple being repaired

4 The vernacular records ending with the Kadiri Amildar's report No 489 dated 24th June 1903, together with the petition received with the memo under reply are herewith submitted for reference and favor of return

Sir,

Adverting to your docket No: 507 dated 21st August 1903, requesting to arrange to at once recover from Mallanna Setti, all the jewels &c of the Sri Ranganatha Swamy Temple at Hosahally in the Kadur Taluk, I have the honor to state that all the jewels &c valued at Rs 1528-10-0 belonging to the said Temple, which were taken away from Mallanna Setty on 2nd January 1904, have been kept in the custody of Sivaramaiyya and others, who have executed a muchalika to produce them when required by Government.

2. Mallanna Setty is reported to have failed failed to produce any sanad to show when and by whom he was appointed as Vahivaldar, but he has given a statement in the Taluk office that he no longer wishes to be a Vahivaldar.

3. The temple in question is not in the enjoyment of any land inams but enjoys only a cash grant of Rs 4 6 0 per annum

4. The marginally noted five persons may, it is requested, be appointed Dharmadarsis for managing the affairs of the said temple as recommended by the Amildar.

1. Sivaramayya Shanbhogue
2 Base Gowda Patel of Avugere
3 Mari Gowda Patel of Garagadahalli
4 Gurubasave Gowda - Patel of Havalahalli
5 Garagadahalli Nanjundayya.
